

CALL FOR PAPERS

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL

Volume 7 Issue No. 1 July 2025

The KDU Journal of Multidisciplinary Studies (KJMS) is published biannually, in July and in November by the Faculty of Graduate Studies, General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University, Sri Lanka. KJMS is an international open-access and peer-reviewed journal to publish high-quality original research papers from different disciplines and interdisciplinary approaches. It is now on Sri Lanka Journal Online (<https://kjms.sljol.info/>). You will receive Digital Object Identifiers (DOI) for KJMS once your Papers is published in SLJOL (<https://kjms.sljol.info/>).

KJMS - SLJOL

The journal is open to researchers of diverse disciplines in defence Studies, Medical and Health Sciences, Life Sciences, Physical Sciences, Built Environment and Spatial Sciences, Engineering, Management, Social Sciences, Humanities, Law, Computing etc. The author guidelines are published in the KJMS website (<https://kdu.ac.lk/kjms/pdf/AUTHOR-guidelines.pdf>) and authors shall use the live template downloadable from KJMS link to prepare the manuscript.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

- Prepare your manuscript according to the author guidelines indicated in the KJMS website
- Format the manuscript in Microsoft Word according to the live template using the headings given in the author guidelines document
- Prepare the reference list according to the Harvard style indicated in the author's guidelines
- Send the author declaration form together with your manuscript (mandatory)

EMAIL YOUR SUBMISSION
BEFORE

28th
FEBRUARY 2025

editorkjms@kdu.ac.lk

<https://kdu.ac.lk/kjms/>

Any manuscript received after the above date will be considered for the next Journal issue-
KJMS VOL 7 Issue 2 November 2025

KJMS - INFO