FOREWORD

General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU) is the National Defence University in Sri Lanka, and its primary role is to produce graduated officers in diverse fields of specialization for the Army, Navy, and Air Force in Sri Lanka. However, after the end of the 30-year-old conflict in the country, it was decided to extend the higher educational opportunities at University to deserving youths in Sri Lanka and in its friendly countries to follow its degree programmes as day-scholars. Thereby the University has so far been able to produce thousands of high-quality graduates who are engaged in lucrative employment and entrepreneurship and making a significant contribution to the nation and its economy.

In this context, it is a pleasure for me to welcome all day-scholars selected for the University, and while congratulating you on being selected to this prestigious institution, I request you to carefully go through the guidelines spelt out in this Handbook. This will definitely provide answers for possible queries that you, the undergraduates, and your parents and guardians might have regarding relevant courses of study at this University. By reading this you will be able to gain some insights into how you should familiarize yourselves with the Defence University environment, so that you will be able to complete your degree programmes successfully.

The staff at the University together with students, both Officer Cadets and Day-Scholars in senior batches join me in welcoming you, the new entrants to this unique Defence University. I hope that you will have an exciting and academically productive stay at the University making significant achievements in academic and extra-curricular activities, which you, your parents, and the whole country can be proud of. Our ultimate goal is to mould you to acquire the personality traits of efficient, disciplined, self-motivated and balanced individuals who will serve the best interests of the nation. I am certain that you will achieve this final goal bringing credit and glory to your alma mater, General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University.

May you all do well and come up with flying colours during your academic career at the University!

All the Best.

THE FLAG OF THE UNIVERSITY

VISION, MISSION AND OBJECTIVES OF THE UNIVERSITY

VISION

To be a University nationally and internationally known for its unique ability to engage both undergraduate and graduate students in distinctive and interdisciplinary defence related higher education that best serves the Tri-Services, the state sector, and society at large.

MISSION

To ensure a high-quality, learner-centered educational experience through undergraduate, graduate and professional programmes with high quality research across many disciplines in the field of Defence, in both residential and non-residential setting in the campus.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the University are as follows:

- a. To provide facilities to introduce Officer Cadets to the profession of arms and guide them to develop their knowledge and skills in the profession of arms, prior to being commissioned in the Armed Forces.

- b. To provide facilities for and instructions in academic studies for Officer Cadets, Officers, Public Officers and any other persons in preparation for the first degree in such subjects that are relevant to their professions or employment.

- c. To foster a spirit of comradeship and goodwill amongst Officer Cadets to develop a sense of amity and unity in the officer corps of the Armed Forces for the purpose of facilitation of joint operations during the course of their services in the said Forces.

- d. To provide courses of study on continuous professional development for officers of the Armed Forces and any other persons selected by the Board to make them qualified for the award of postgraduate degrees, diplomas and other certificates by the University.

- e. To discharge such other functions including research and development as the University may consider necessary for the achievement of its objectives.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

1. General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU) was initially established as “Sir John Kotelawala Defence Academy” by the Parliamentary Act No 68 of 1981. The Academy was granted University status by the Sir John Kotelawala Defence Academy (Amendment) Act No 27 of 1988. Subsequently, it was renamed as “General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University” on 11th October 2007. At present, the degrees awarded by the University are recognized by the University Grants Commission of Sri Lanka. It is also a member of the Association of Commonwealth Universities (United Kingdom) and International Association of Universities (IAU).
2. The University is located in Ratmalana, 12 km from Colombo, on a 50-acre land which was once the residential estate of late General Sir John Kotelawala, the third Prime Minister of Sri Lanka. This estate is of breathtaking beauty, and is enriched with a spectacular lake. Its natural environs and a range of unique and rare species of flora are carefully maintained to preserve the antiquity of the premises in its pristine condition.
3. In 1979, the Sri Lankan Armed Forces conveyed to the Government of Sri Lanka the need for a course of higher studies which would enable young officers to gain higher academic qualifications. Accordingly, a team comprising of officials from the Services as well as from universities was sent to India where they visited the National Defence Academy and the Indian Military Academy. On their return, the team proposed the setting up of a Defence Academy to award degrees in Defence Studies.
4. In 1980, General Sir John Kotelawala CH KBE LLD (Honoris Causa) having understood from the then Commander of the Army, Lieutenant General JED Perera, the necessity of a suitable location for the proposed Defence Academy, expressed his willingness to donate the Kandawala Estate with its moveable and immovable property to the Government to establish the Defence Academy. This offer was gladly accepted and initial steps were taken to set up the Academy. By this time, Sir John Kotelawala was promoted to the rank of General, and when he died on 02nd October 1980, the Government and the Services decided to honour him by naming the Academy “General Sir John Kotelawala Defence Academy” (KDA).
5. The Academy was formally declared open by His Excellency the President JR Jayewardene on 11th October 1980. However, due to the lack of resources and infrastructure facilities, the Officer Cadets of the first few KDA intakes had to follow their degree programmes at the University of Colombo and the University of Moratuwa from February 1981. Since then, the Academy has grown slowly but steadily, both in its resources and in the quality of the courses of study it offered.
6. With the change of its name to General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University in 2007 and with the end of the thirty-year old war, the institution keeps taking giant steps forward. Particularly since 2009, many positive and futuristic changes have taken place. The introduction of the Faculties of Graduate Studies, Defence and Strategic Studies, Medicine, Engineering, Law, Management, Social Sciences and Humanities, Allied Health Sciences, Built Environment and Spatial Sciences and the Center for Research and Development and strengthening of human and physical resources by several folds, the introduction of many new courses under various disciplines, affiliation of other defence educational institutions to the University, organization of international research symposia, etc. stand as testimony for the recent growth of the University to a level never dreamt of a few years ago. General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University has embarked on a journey to become one of the best universities in the country in the near future.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University Honour Code for Day Scholars

“I will neither lie, cheat, steal nor tolerate those who do.”

10. General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University is proud to be the first Defence University established in the region which operates directly under the Ministry of Defence. The Honour Code for the Day Scholars would be a novel experience whereby they will be moulded to become dedicated and honest servants of the nation. Signing one’s name to the Honour Code not only ensures one’s academic pride and integrity but also one’s commitment to a future comprising honest work and integrity.

11. The students of the University are required to sign this statement before their admittance to the University. The Code should also be written in full and signed on every assignment, quiz, and examination of a course. In signing this statement, students ensure that their work fully complies with the authorized aid defined by the lecturer. It is the lecturer’s responsibility to define unauthorized and authorized aid, but it is the students’ responsibility to question any reasonable doubt that may arise about that definition. Ignorance is not accepted as a valid excuse for a violation of the Honour Code.

12. An integral clause in the Honour Code is that of non-tolerance. This clause ensures that the Honour Code is a functioning entity supported by the active participation of all students. Students are not expected to police others’ actions but only to report violations of which they may become aware. It is inherent in the Honor Code that examinations do not have to be administered, which gives lecturers and students the freedom of formats such as take-home examinations. However, if students feel threatened that the Honor Code may be violated, they have the right to request anonymously that the examinations be administered.

13. The Registrar is responsible for issuing Student Record Books to Students and Students are responsible to maintain the Record Book in a timely manner.

THE CURRICULUM

14. The University has a two-semester academic year, and the newly selected students will be integrated into the first semester of the Degree Programmes. However, Day Scholars are exempted from military or defence study component of the curriculum. They will be evaluated purely on their academic performance.

15. Lectures are conducted by a qualified panel of lecturers consisting of both internal and visiting lecturers from other universities. All students are expected to attend lectures regularly, and complete their tutorials, assignments and the reading or recommended reference, textbooks, etc. within the prescribed time period. This will enable students to reach a satisfactory level of academic attainment. Self-study during non-lecture hours is encouraged.

THE LIBRARY

16. The Library is the heart of the University that stimulates and supports intellectual inquiry by developing its collections and delivering quality services to all user communities.

University Library system consists of the Main Library, Medical Library, Allied Health Sciences Library and Southern Campus Library. The new Engineering Library is currently under construction and is scheduled to open in the near future. As a part of the academic programmes of the University, all University libraries provide state of the art facilities for printed and electronic resources with on-site and remote access provisions. Different categories of information resources are available in University Libraries forming different collections precisely General, Reference, Sri Lanka, Permanent Reference, Newspapers, Periodicals, Thesis and Audio Visual.

Currently University Libraries empower users by providing access to a broad range of scholarly information with 30,860 printed books, 550 electronic books and 03 electronic database for teaching, learning and research purposes. Document Delivery Service provides articles / books which are not available in University libraries to requested parties on free of cost. The circulation service operates circulation desks with friendly, courteous, and knowledgeable staff who assist users by checking items in and out, attending trading activities which includes photocopying, assisting users to access computers and information resources etc.

University Libraries have citation management software called Mendeley, which is an online reference management tool. They have also subscribed to Turn it in which is an online plagiarism prevention tool. And it is a proprietary system that allows instructors to submit student work for identification of plagiarized content. Academic Libraries regularly conduct different training programmes on e-Databases, Information Literacy, Plagiarism and Referencing for academic staff and student of the University. Generally, the opening hours of the University libraries will be determined with the demand for library use, requirements and staff availability. However, the usual opening hours of the Main and Medical Libraries are 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m. on weekdays and 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on weekends and 8.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. on weekdays for the Allied Health Sciences Library.

17. All students will be granted fully fledged library membership for the entire period of registration and are strongly advised to use the resources for their optimal academic achievements.

CENTRE FOR GENDER EQUITY AND EQUALITY

The Centre for Gender Equity and Equality of the University (CGEE- KDU) is an interdisciplinary centre established in September, 2020. The Center reports directly to the Vice Chancellor and draws its membership from across the University.

The CGEE-KDU works towards promoting a gender-sensitive culture and an environment which allow students and staff (academic/administrative/support) to pursue their work without oppression and discrimination.

Stipulated functions of the KDU-CGEE are to conduct research, review policies and contribute to policy inputs. CGEE further works on ensuring fairness and justice in the distribution of opportunities, benefits and responsibilities between women and men at the University. It will also inquire into Sexual and Gender Based Violence (SGBV), identifying ways and means of preventing them and propose disciplinary actions.

DISCIPLINARY RULES FOR DAY SCHOLARS

01. Disciplinary Authority

The Vice Chancellor of the University shall be the Disciplinary Authority in respect of Day Scholars.

02. Disciplinary Procedure

A. Preliminary Investigation

- i. Any allegation of breach of discipline against a Day Scholar shall in the first instance be reported to the Vice Chancellor.
- ii. Where the Vice Chancellor receives information relating to any breach of discipline by a Day Scholar and considers that further particulars should be obtained, he may require a member of the staff of the University to proceed to the place in question and to report on the same within 24 hours.
- iii. Where the Vice Chancellor is satisfied on the availability of evidence relating to breach of discipline, he shall appoint one or more members of staff of the University or any other suitable person to inquire into the facts and submit the observations and recommendations in writing within 3 working days.
- iv.
 - a. In a case where the Vice Chancellor deems it necessary in the context of the seriousness of the breach of discipline or where the Day Scholar pleads not guilty but has been revealed in the fact finding inquiry stated in paragraph iii above that the Day Scholar has committed an act amounting to breach of discipline, the Vice Chancellor may impose an Out of Bounds Declaration for a specified period of time on such Day Scholar with immediate effect upon giving reasons for same in writing pending a formal inquiry.
 - b. An Out of Bound Declaration shall mean a total prohibition on attendance or access to the University premises and participation in any activity of the University. However the Vice Chancellor may on his discretion permit such a Day Scholar to enter the University premises for a specific purpose.
 - c. An Out of Bounds Declaration may include such other reasonable conditions as the Vice Chancellor may think fit.
 - d. An Out of Bounds Declaration made under paragraph a. above shall not be considered as a punishment. The purpose of such declaration is to protect a member or members of the University and the power to make such declaration shall be used only where the Vice Chancellor is of the opinion that it is necessary to take such action.
 - e. No Day Scholar shall be subjected to an Out of Bounds Declaration unless he has been given an opportunity to make representations in person to the Registrar. Where for any reason it appears to the Vice Chancellor that it is not possible for the Day Scholar to attend in person, he shall be entitled to make such representations in writing. The Registrar shall submit a written report to the Vice Chancellor within twenty four (24) hours of such representations for making a decision on the Out of Bounds Declaration.

f. Provided however that, in case of great urgency, the Vice Chancellor considering the seriousness of the breach of discipline committed by the Day Scholar, shall be empowered to make the Out of Bounds Declaration on a Day Scholar with immediate effect upon giving the reasons in writing.

g. The Vice Chancellor shall review the Out of Bounds Declaration every thirty (30) days and shall record the reasons if the validity period of such Declaration is extended.

v. The Vice Chancellor shall on the receipt of the investigation report on breach of discipline, by the fact finding committee, cause charges to be framed in writing within seven (07) days from the receipt of the said report and sent under registered post to the Day Scholar alleged to have committed the breach of discipline requiring him to reply within seven (07) days from the date of receipt of the Charge Sheet.

vi. The Vice Chancellor may also order withholding of the examination results of a Day Scholar pending an inquiry or investigation.

vii. If the Day Scholar pleads guilty to the Charge Sheet or does not reply within the time specified therein, the Vice Chancellor shall proceed to impose on the Day Scholar any of the punishments based on the Schedule hereto and report to the Board of Discipline.

B. Formal Inquiry

i. If the Day Scholar pleads not guilty to the charges and/or the Vice Chancellor is not satisfied with the answers given, the Vice Chancellor shall appoint a Disciplinary Committee comprising three (03) members of the staff of the University to hold a formal inquiry and submit a report within fourteen (14) days. The Procedure to be followed is stipulated hereinafter.

ii. The Day Scholar shall be notified of the date of the inquiry by the Secretary to the Committee.

iii. At the inquiry, the Day Scholar shall be informed of the evidence against him and have the right to defend himself. He may make his own defence and call any witnesses for the defence.

iv. The Disciplinary Committee may, taking in to consideration the special circumstances of the situation deny a Day Scholar charged with a breach of discipline, the opportunity to question the complainant regarding the complaint made or any witness relating to the evidence given by the witness.

Provided that in such a situation, the Day Scholar charged with breach of discipline shall have the right to seek in writing, through the Disciplinary Committee, clarification on specific issues relating to the complaint or evidence from the complainant or the witness as the case may be. Upon the Disciplinary Committee directing such request to the complainant or the witness, he shall give his clarifications in writing to the Day Scholar charged with breach of discipline within the time stipulated by the Disciplinary Committee.

v. The Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to summon any witness required by the prosecution and by the defence.

vi. The Disciplinary Committee shall have the power to summon any student of the University to render whatever assistance needed to conduct an inquiry on breach of discipline by a Day Scholar. A student who does not comply with such direction shall be guilty of a punishable offence.

vii. At the inquiry the Day Scholar shall be provided with relevant documents or extracts from the same, which have been used to frame the charges.

viii. After the inquiry the Disciplinary Committee shall submit a report to the Vice Chancellor giving reasons for its findings and the recommendations.

ix. If the Day Scholar had been found guilty for the charges the Vice Chancellor shall refer the same to the Board of Discipline to determine the punishment within the scope of the Schedule here to.

x. On receipt of determination of the punishments by the Board of Discipline, the Vice Chancellor shall immediately impose the punishment on the Day Scholar. The decision shall be conveyed to the Day Scholar under registered post and where possible shall be hand delivered.

C. Punishments

i. Any one or more of the following punishments may be imposed by the Vice Chancellor on a Day Scholar who is proved guilty of breach of discipline upon inquiry and depending on the degree of severity of the act done:

- a. Warning
- b. Severe warning

- c. Reprimand
 - d. Admonition
 - e. Suspension from attending lectures and other activities at the University for a specified duration
 - f. Withholding of examination results or certificates for a specified duration
 - g. Cancellation of candidature of an examination for a specified duration
 - h. Expulsion from the University
- ii. All punishments and any disciplinary action taken shall be recorded in the Day Scholar's Personal File and may be reflected in the Testimonial and the Record Book.

Provided, that the Board of Management shall have the power to remove records of punishments, taking into consideration the gravity of the breach of discipline and the good behavior of the Day Scholar concerned, upon a request to such effect.

D. Appeals

- i. A Day Scholar against whom such disciplinary action has been taken may appeal to the Board of Management against such decision within fourteen (14) days from the date of receipt of such decision.
- ii. The Vice Chancellor shall place such an appeal before the next immediate meeting of the Board of Discipline.
- iii. a. The Board of Discipline, if it deems the appeal warrants due consideration on merit, shall appoint an Appeals Committee consisting of three (03) members of the staff of the University for consideration of the appeal.
 - b. The Appeals Committee shall elect its Chairman. The Registrar shall function as the Secretary to the Appeals Committee.
 - c. Otherwise, the Board of Discipline may reject the appeal with reasons therefore stated.
- iv. The Appeals Committee shall consider the appeal and submit a report to the Board of Discipline within two (02) weeks from the receipt of the appeal by the Committee.
- v. The members of the Disciplinary Committee relating to the appeal in question, shall not be included in the Appeals Committee.
- vi. The Board of Discipline shall have the power to vary the decision taken on the disciplinary action against the Day Scholar on the basis of the recommendation of the Appeals Committee.
