Master of Laws in Public Law

Introduction

The specialized LLM Programme intends to inculcate the candidates with an advanced knowledge in the area of Public Law, thus filling the dearth of legal practitioners with such expert knowledge and enhancing the career development and prospects of the students. The students upon the successful completion of this qualification will be able to gain employment as academics, researchers, legal officers, policy officers, government officials and engage in legal practice in the area of Public Law.

The teaching staff of the programme brings together the best legal minds in Sri Lanka which includes leading academics, practitioners and industry professionals with special expertise, as well as visiting international scholars. Students would benefit from the rich educational environment while intermingling with professionals from many backgrounds and industries, and building the specialized expertise and experience needed to gain a professional cutting edge.

Objectives

The breadth of the programme gives students an opportunity to harness their legal knowledge and skills and enhance career prospects for the purpose of attaining their personal and professional goals. Further,

- a. To offer a comprehensive study programme for those who intend to specialize in Public Law by gaining more advanced knowledge and critical thinking abilities.
- b. To develop the competencies on critical analysis of the theory and practices of Public Law in Sri Lanka particularly the relationship between the citizens and the State.

- c. To uplift the career standards and research competencies of the professionals and academics in the field of Public Law.
- d. To provide the foundation for progression to doctoral level study in Public Law.
- e. To enhance attitudes, values, ethics and communication skills to facilitate career progression.

Intended Learning Outcomes

At the end of the Master of Laws in Public Law, a student will be able to:

- a. Demonstrate critical awareness of current issues in Public Law and be able to apply techniques relevant to profession/ area of specialization.
- b. Deal with complex issues systematically and creatively and make sound judgments and communicate decisions clearly to specialist and non-specialist groups.
- c. Should demonstrate self-direction and originality in tackling and solving problems and be able to plan and implement tasks at professional manner.

Eligibility Criteria

A person may be eligible for admission to the Degree Programme provided he/she meets the following criteria;

- i. A Legal Officer in the Armed Forces, the Police or the Public/Private sector, or an independent practitioner; and
- ii. Possesses any of the following qualifications;
 - a. A Degree in Law with a 1st class/ 2nd class upper division; or

- b. A Degree in Law with a 2nd class lower division and with 2 years professional experience, or
- c. A Degree in Law without a class and with 3 years professional experience, or
- d. An Attorney at Law with a minimum of 5 years professional experience.

Programme Structure

The Degree Programme shall be considered as full-time study programme with a research component of 15 credits and 12 modules of 45 credits (Total - 60) offered in 04 semesters. The duration of the Degree Programme shall be two (02) academic years (24 months). Lectures will be held on weekends according to the schedule provided by the Faculty of Law other than public holidays from 0830 hrs to 1730 hrs. The medium of instruction and evaluation of the Degree Programme is English.

Continuous Assessments

Instructions for Submission of Continuous Assessments

- a. FGS expects the highest professional, academic and scholarly standards in student assignments. Therefore, haphazard, incomplete or hurried assignments will not qualify for marking.
- b. Marks obtained for assignments will be added to the examination marks; FGS expects the students to work hard, consider these assignments seriously and concentrate on them. Assignments are potentially powerful learning resources for communication.
- c. Assignments call for a significant degree of knowledge, analysis and critique. Therefore, the students must prepare in advance for their assignments thoroughly and well. Assignments should not be completed in a rush.
- d. Students must try out different drafts and work hard on them.
- e. There are no extensions on assignment submission dates. Students are responsible for submitting their assignments on due date.
